Christmas over we find too many Cloaks and Jackets on our racks. The long and short of it is, they must be sold. To realize the money we offer them all

At COST.

The line consists of

LADIES' JACKETS,
PLUSH SACQUES,

CHILDREN'S AND MISSES' GARMENTS.

Very desirable and stylish. This is the opportunity you have been waiting for. Accept it now and benefit yourself.

W. R. SELICK & CO.

NEW GOODS

and we are prepared to show the people a finer class of goods than ever. Past experience has taught us that the people appreciate the kind of goods we handle, and we shall continue to try to please them. We have now a very nice line of

Fancy Rockers, 85c to $50
Couches, $7.50 to $40
Bedroom Suits, $18 to $85
Parlor Suits, $40 to $140
Center Tables, $1.25 to $13
Easels, $1.00 to $4

In fact, anything you want at any price you wish. Call and see if this isn't right, at

E. L. GOODALE'S.

We don't know exactly what's the matter, but all day long up and down our store there's the greatest clatter going on. We are selling more Stoves right now than we ever did (not to mention other goods), and we realize that we are not in our dotage, but in a community of bright, progressive, bargain-hunting Americans who know a good thing when they see it.

We can come as near helping you solve the problem of making a little money cover a multitude of wants (in our line of goods) as any firm in this Van Buren diocese. Yours for the Hardware campaign of 1893 with a great big United States WHOOP!

Fred Bilsborrow.

THE TRUE NORTHERNER and the Weekly Inter Ocean for $2.20 per year.
Last Sunday morning was the coldest thus far of the season—8° below zero.

Mark Monroe came down from Kalamazoo to eat turkey with his mother.
The Gobleville band made music at the rink Saturday night for skaters and dancers.

Mrs. Rhoda A. Hopkins is home again from a six months' stay in Northern Michigan.

The Dowagiac Methodists are talking of building a new house of worship to cost $20,000.

Mrs. John Stanton of South Haven is a guest at the home of her brother, H. K. Wells.

Politics aside, we consider the Detroit Free Press one of the best newspapers in Michigan.

Nathan Goodrich of Delavan, Wis., is spending the holidays with relatives in this vicinity.

A gold watch and chain adds to Quis Eaton's happiness—a Christmas gift from his father.

Mr. A. T. Stark, representing The Horsemen of Chicago, was among our visitors Monday.

For two dollars you can have the NORTHERNER and the Detroit Weekly Tribune one year.

A new baby daughter was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Galligan of El Dorado, Kansas.

J. G. Vandenburg of De Kalb county, Illinois, visited his sister, Mrs. S. T. Conway, Christmas.

The Lawton Leader issued a very pretty holiday edition on the date of its regular issue last week.

Mrs. L. Crandall and Mrs. R. C. Nash and baby are spending the holiday week with friends in Mendon.

H. W. McCabe is "under the weather"—suffering with throat trouble. Too much auction.

Mrs. Porter A. Dean the other day invested a few hundred dollars in the new eastern suburb of Kalamazoo.

Dr. A. G. Noble and wife of Oakland county spent Christmas in this place, a guest of his cousin, Mr. D. D. Noble.

Dan Robb says he gets all his stuff by weight—that is, he waits 'till the old man turns his back, then gets his work in.

Wallace Chamberlain of Waukegan, Ill., is visiting friends in this county, at present a guest of his niece, Mrs. Ed. Arnold.

Prof. Wilson and Hinckley and Misses Burdick and Hinckley are in attendance upon the State Teachers' association at Lansing.

Miss Daisy Longwell was the recipient of an elegant gold watch and chain as a Christmas present. We will tell the balance of the story later.

Charles and James Farwell, former residents of this place, now of East Helena, Montana, are visiting with the "old folks at home."

S. S. Phillips, aged 78 years, died at the home of his son, C. C. Phillips, editor of the Hartford Day Spring, on Wednesday of last week.

Justice Mason had before him on the 22d inst. Jesse F. Coons of Lawton, who pleaded guilty of being drunk and disorderly. Three dollars and costs.

All who wish to participate in the Presbyterian Sunday school sleigh ride are requested to meet at the church promptly at 2 p. m. on Saturday next.

They are having high-jinks sport at the rink now-a-days. Boys on skates catching greased pigs is a mild variety of the hilarity prevalent at that fun-factory.

The Bangor Advance last week issued a full double number containing portraits and brief sketches of the lives of about fifty of the prominent citizens of that place.

According to the reports of our local merchants, there were more goods sold at retail last Saturday than on any other one day in the history of the place.

Mrs. J. B. Smith lost a pair of gold-bowed spectacles on the street last Friday. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving them at the post-office.

Barton and Struble, charged with the killing of "Bin" Van Allen in Covert last September, were committed to jail without bail from Justice Mason's court last week.

Guy F. Harrison was in town over Sunday. He told the NORTHERNER that he was getting together material for his attorney to use in his suit against the corporation.

Wm. Signor and daughter and Martin Gage left last Thursday for Watertown, N. Y., for an extended visit. Mr. Signor is in poor health and his physician advised the change.

Frank Stearns has been visiting with old time Paw Paw friends the past few days. He is representing a wholesale drug house at Sioux City, while his family resides at Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. James Norris have once more buried the hatchet and are cozily ensconced in the O'Grady restaurant at Lawrence. They intend taking a trip to Ireland the coming summer.

Edwin Young of Gobles was in Justice Mason's court on Wednesday of last week charged with violation of the local option law. He waived examination and gave bail to the circuit court.

Fred Jacobs' little six-year-old boy wandered away from home last Thursday night and his people were unable to locate him. Next morning, however, he was found at Charley Fye's, where he had been cared for over night.

O. H. Packer and wife of Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, are visiting at the home of his father, Mr. J. E. Packer, north of town. Mr. P. is engaged as a mining engineer and was through the great labor troubles of that region in July last.

A Hathaway's Young Stamboul got away from his driver last Friday and ran, with the cutter on its side and one thrill over his back, four or five miles east on the Territorial road, where he was captured by Wallie Bale. No great damage done.

Out struts M. O. and denies that he wrote it. We ought to have known it. We crave his pardon. Keep on trying, dear boy. You mean well enough and evidently know a good thing when you see it. What you learned at Kalamazoo may make a very able man of you some day.

Nellie, wife of J. W. White of West Bay City, died on Saturday, Dec. 24th, at their home in that city, of heart disease. The remains were brought to Oshtemo yesterday, and interred in the family lot. Mr. White is a brother of Wallace White, living east of this village.

Albert Pretzel, a feeble minded German, has wandered away from his home in Calhoun county. He is 5 ft. 5 inches in height, brown hair, light complexion, and wore a blue frock, overalls, knit cap and felt boots. S. J. Henderson of Albion offers $20 for information as to his whereabouts.

The week of prayer will begin next Sunday evening by a Union service at the Presbyterian church. The Rev. A. Jones will preach. The meetings will continue through the following week, with the exception of Saturday evening. Everyone come. Further notice will be given later.

Village Trustees Gremps and Spicer are instructed by the council to go to Kalamazoo and investigate a new scheme of street lighting on exhibition there. Hope they will go at once and report something—anything—to lift us out of this pall of darkness which now envelops us. Let us have light.

'Twas a good thing for Tom Cavanaugh's friends that trains were late on the Central last Saturday, for he left his "grip" in the Paw Paw station; discovered its absence at Lawton, and telephoned back to Labe Menter, who took it to Lawton in time to catch the train. It contained all his Christmas presents.

Miss Dora Loveland was married December 14th to Mr. Albert Shively of Laurel, Neb. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Van Winkle of the Episcopal church at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Elmer Cornell. The happy couple will be followed to their western home by the best wishes of hosts of friends.

F. E. Stevens has secured the agency of a work especially valuable at this time—"The Progress of Four Hundred Years," being a condensed history of Columbus and his struggles leading up to the discovery of America, the nation's growth, and many other matters pertinent to the quadricentennial. The work will have extensive sale.

Harper's Bazar for December 31st, completing its twenty-fifth volume, will contain among many other attractive features a two-act comedy by Grace L. Furniss, entitled "Fallo's Luck," also a finely illustrated paper on "Chinese Women as seen in Peking," by Isaac T. Headland, Professor of Mental and Moral Philosophy in the University of Peking.

Word and Works, a monthly publication edited by Rev. Irl R. Hicks at St. Louis, Mo., among its many valuable departments has one of meteorology and weather forecasts for each month. For January 1893 it says that "a regular storm period is central on Jan. 2 which promises disturbance of a marked and violent type. Blizzards with sweeping winds and snow blockades are very apt to prevail in all parts of the country, and the coldest wave of the winter is liable to follow and dominate the whole country up to the reactionary changes, about the 8th and 9th." The publication is exceedingly valuable. $1 a year; single copies 10 cents.

Judge Mills and daughters of Kalamazoo helped to make a success of the dance at the rink last night.

N. B. Rector has started a skunk farm about three miles from Benton Harbor. He has about two dozen of the malodorous pets on hand. His neighbors are said to be very fond of him.

F. E. Ingraham, wife and boy, of Grand Forks, North Dakota, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Ingraham, in this place. Mr. Ingraham went to Dakota about ten years ago; was there when the counties and townships were organized, and has held office in his township (Michigan) ever since—constable, assessor, supervisor. Before returning they will visit friends in Grand Rapids and Port Huron.

The Marcellus correspondent of the Cassopolis Vigilant has this to say about the much talked of spiritualist medium of that place: "The excitement still continues at Riley's. Last Thursday evening there were 21 different materialized forms appeared during the seance, five of whom were women. Mrs. Riley says it was the most wonderful night they had ever known, the most skeptical are astounded at their wonderful manifestations."

We call attention to the advertisement of the Detroit Weekly Tribune, appearing in another column. It has been known for over 50 years as the great general weekly of Michigan, the present subscription list of 65,000 names being a proof of its merits. Until Jan. 15th this paper will send to every new subscriber remitting them one dollar and ten cents the Weekly Tribune for one year and Bill Nye's new book of 500 pages and 150 illustrations, postage paid. It is a remarkable offer.

The finest display of dressed meats ever made in Paw Paw now hangs in Ocohook Brothers' market. Notable among a score or more of carcasses on exhibition are a pair of 4-year-old steers weighing 4,000 lbs.; a 2-year-old heifer weighing 1,200; a 15-month-old heifer weighing 1,000; a 3-months-old heifer calf weighing 480 lbs.; a pair of yearling Shropshire wethers weighing 305 lbs., &c., &c. The dressing and "setting up" is in the highest style of the art and gives evidence of much skill and good taste. The show will repay the trouble of stepping in to look at it.

We were asked the other evening by a lady friend why we made notice of the Christmas exercises at some of the churches and not others. The only answer we had was that we cheerfully and gladly publish all such notices handed in to us. Our local columns are always open for announcements of church doings and for gatherings of any kind for charitable and benevolent purposes, and if those immediately interested will take the trouble to hand in such notices as early as Tuesday noon of each week they will find no cause for complaint in this direction.

Business Briefs.

The best cuts of beef, pork, mutton, veal, lamb etc., at the Model Market. Poultry and oysters in abundance.

Whether you buy or not, don't forget to see the display of meats at Ocohook's. Fine oysters in bulk.

For everything in the meat line go to Ocohook Bro's Model Market. Oysters and poultry a specialty.

It's holidays all the time at Ocohook's market—a full supply of everything in their line. Call and be convinced.

Ocohook Bro's have the best line of all kinds of New Years' meats, poultry, oysters, etc. Place your orders early.

Christmas has come and gone, but J. H. Waters & Co. are still on deck with a fine stock of hardware.

Buy your presents for New Years at Sellick's—muffs, drapes, handkerchiefs, etc. They are closing out their holiday stock at cost.

In closing up your holiday purchases, don't forget to call at Avery's Star Dry goods house.

The Chicago store will continue business until Jan. 15th, and the bargains of the past few weeks will still be found there.

This is the last chance—now to Jan. 1st—to catch big bargains at "The Leaders." See their adv.

Probate Court Proceedings.

Following are the proceedings in Judge Heckert's court for the week ending Tuesday, Dec. 27:
